INTRODUCTION

As the Internet developed, various ideological ideas became widespread. Social networks have increased the number of messengers and created a variety of virtual aggression, violence, distractions that threaten the future of young people, at the same time invisible, but threatening their future. This in itself has highlighted the need to raise the spiritual immunity of young people and shows that it is necessary to fight against opposing forces as much as possible, not through cold steel, but through proper upbringing, proper education. In this case, first of all, the main criterion should be the ability of the media, especially the press, to make an objective assessment of the situation, reliable and truthful coverage of sources that negatively affect the minds of young people. In order to fight against various attacks, they must carry out propaganda work accordingly; Educational materials published in the press should not only provide information to the reader, but also provide an accurate assessment of the situation, to draw conclusions.

In this regard, the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev said, "Another important issue that always concerns us is the morality, behavior, in a word, the worldview of our youth. Today times are altering rapidly. Young people are the ones who feel these changes the most. May the youth meet the requirements of their time? But at the same time, don't forget your identity. May the call of who we are and what a generation of great beings always resonate in their hearts and motivate them to remain true to themselves. How do we achieve this? Upbringing, upbringing, and only at the expense of upbringing."

The press enhances human spirituality, broadening of worldview, harmony of ideas, the impact of words. Any publication follows these criteria. One of the youth publications published in our country, the newspaper "Yoshlar ovozi" regularly publishes comprehensive, thoughtful and thoughtful articles. Articles with such content occupy a large part of the newspaper. This, of course, takes into account how the published material affects the minds of young people, how important it is for their lives. In educating the younger generation, setting an example from their lives has a much more positive effect.

It should be noted that the newspaper "Yoshlar ovozi" is one of the publications that has become a real voice of young people in sharing spirituality with young people, informing them about important events in society and covering the activities of the Youth Union of Uzbekistan. Published by the Youth Union of Uzbekistan, the newspaper has been publishing colorful and reliable pages for young people and its readers since the establishment of the union (2017).

Current issues are raised in the pages of the newspaper, such as "Current Topic", "Review", "Perspective", and "Topic for Review". Young people are at the forefront of articles on the factors that are important for the education of young people, harmful habits and their negative consequences, as well as the fight against ideological threats. In this article, we will analyze the materials in the newspaper "Yoshlar ovozi" and try to reveal their importance in the education of young people.

First of all, a number of articles by journalist Nargiza Umarova published in the "Yoshlar ovozi" focus on youth issues. She is a strong journalist who shakes his pen on the most topical issues of the day. Her articles are of educational value to every student. For example, in the October 4, 2018 issue of the newspaper, "Why do some of our peers take refuge instead of changing their lives?" The article emphasizes that young people in our country do not take full advantage of the opportunities created for them. At a time when the government was saying that it would give young people up to a million dollars in collateral for a single project, please, take it and start working, even if not everyone had to knock on the door of many banks. but in practice this is not the case. " It can be seen from the content that the article was written with a smile.

Let's take another article by the author. The article "Spirituality enriches the heart, not the pockets" in the August 14, 2018 issue of the newspaper "Actual topic" is also about the desire of young people to work and learn. But in it the author sharply condemns the behavior of some of our young people:

"Unfortunately, not all young people today are hardworking. There is even a category among them for which knowledge is not considered a value. That's why you won't find any books worth reading among the luxury furniture and modern appliances in your house. And the forces that are trying to impose their rule on entire states in exchange for the spiritual impoverishment of the people need such ignorance."

The reader begins to observe after reading the article, witnessing that he wrote the truth. Looking at the non-readers, the knowledge, those who do not understand the book, which is mentioned in the article, awakens in the reader a feeling of gratitude. That is, for a person familiar with spirituality, this article serves as a guide. At the end of the article it is emphasized that no one has the right to be indifferent in the upbringing of children. In general, many other articles by journalist Nargiza Umarova published in the newspaper are similar - they are written in a critical spirit.

The newspaper's April 17, 2018 issue (45), Author Dilnoza Abduhamidova's "Who does education?" article, published on the "Mulohaza" page, which also focuses on the consequences of delays in child rearing or the consequences of neglect. In addition, the article by Rohatoy Kadyrova "Ignorance misleads" based on the information provided by the press service of the Republican Council for Coordination of Citizens' Self-Government, published in this issue of the "Current Topic" page, also attracts readers with thought-provoking ideas.

The article notes that in our country, the consequences of the unintentional involvement of young people in various extremist groups and measures to prevent them are being taken.

"Young people who join the biased currents due to their ignorance of the essence of Islam and ignorance of the humanist ideas at the heart of our sacred religion can be guided only by the beacon of enlightenment," the author writes. The article is important for newspaper readers, it is devoted to the main issues of our time.

The "My opinion" page has also become a platform for young people to freely express their views and exchange views on current issues. Kamoliddin Ruzimatov's article "Thorns in our language" published in the newspaper on May 26, 2018 (62) on the same page also invites the reader to observe. The author writes based on an incident he witnessed: on the bus, a mother cursed her child and these words had a strong effect on the author, according to the content of the article, a person should think of what he wants to say. After all, the most important tool in raising a child is language. This is why the topic raised raises the right conclusion.

Literature is able to enrich the inner beauty, the inner world of each person spiritually. In this way, real creativity, original works are needed. For this purpose, on the last page of the newspaper "Yoshlar ovozi" regularly covers the works of young people under the heading "Inspiration of youth." A special feature of the newspaper's literary approach is that the newspaper does not publish poems. Mostly stories, and rarely fairy tales are covered. This encourages the development of students' artistic worldviews.

In addition, on the last page of the newspaper "Yoshlar ovozi" in order to form the intellectual abilities of young people, to exchange views, "What do you say?" opened a column called. In it, newspaper readers write articles on topics of interest to them, witnessed and important for today. Sultanboy Allonov's article "Debt-stricken, head-scratching "dreams" talks about the extravagance of our weddings.

In conclusion, the newspaper "Yoshlar ovozi" has a wide range of topics, and the articles presented can regularly attract the attention of readers. Their educational character is also high. It should be noted that the current topic is one of the main features of the newspaper.
